

Class of 2025

STUDENT PROFILES

AJ GUNERA Newburgh, NY

Future Plans: Princeton University (Chemical and Biomedical Engineering)

Notables: School Co-President; Varsity Soccer; Honor Roll; Yearbook Co-President; Peer Tutor

I chose CFS because I knew a few people who attended, and they all said they couldn't imagine being with any other community of people for their high school years.

ADARSH RANA Rego Park, NY

Future Plans: Vassar College (Computer Science)

Notables: School Mascot, Honor Council President, Varsity Tennis and Wrestling, Peer Tutor, Cottage Prefect, Student Ambassador

What makes CFS special is the unbreakable bonds that the students share. Everyone supports each other through challenges and celebrates each other's successes. You always feel like you're part of something bigger than yourself.

NEIMAN SMITH Philadelphia, PA

Future Plans: Widener University (Sports Medicine and Psychology)

Notables: Varsity Basketball, Track and Baseball; Admissions Ambassador; Student Athletic Council; Curriculum Committee

CFS helps you discover who you are outside of home—how you handle big responsibilities, independence and personal growth.

KENNENT PINEDA Newark, NJ

Future Plans: Swarthmore College (Engineering)

Notables: QuestBridge National College Match, Co-Founded Hispanic Heritage Club, Admissions and Development Ambassador, Varsity Soccer, Cottage Prefect, CFS Band

I knew that to be successful, I needed to be more open with others. Church Farm helped me to become more social.

MUSE KABISO-JOHNSON Manchester, CT

Future Plans: Skidmore College (Political Science/Chemistry)

Notables: Varsity Soccer, Lacrosse and Bowling; CFS Christmas Pageant Actor; Yearbook Club

Brotherhood isn't just about being in the same space; it's about sharing experiences, supporting one another through challenges and celebrating each other's successes.
